We thank to all sponsors. The GCA initiative is possible thanks to generous educational grants from Clovis, ImmunoGen, Merck/Pfizer Alliance, Roche and Tesaro.

10th Gynaecological Cancer Academy Workshop

HOTEL ROYAL CONTINENTAL
NAPLES, ITALY
APRIL 20–21, 2018

ENGOT/GCA Secretariat
YMCA Palace
Na Porici 12/1041
110 00 Prague
Czech Republic
Email: engot@esgo.org
Programme

FRIDAY, APRIL 20

15:30–16:00 Welcome coffee

16:00–17:30 Session I
16:00–16:20 What is ENGOT? What is GCIG?
   Sandro Pignata, Italy
16:20–16:40 Partnership with ENGOT – view from the Industry
   Ignacio Dolado, Switzerland
16:40–17:00 Partnership with Industry – view from ENGOT
   Antonio González, Spain
17:00–17:30 Round table with industry representatives

17:30–18:00 Coffee break

18:00–19:30 Workshop: How to improve collaboration?
   Workshop in 4 small groups
   How to improve your cooperative group?
   How to improve ENGOT?
   How to develop the collaboration with industry?
   How to develop the collaboration with non-ENGOT groups?

20:30–22:30 Dinner for all participants

SATURDAY, APRIL 21

08:30–09:10 Session II
08:30–08:50 Future direction for first line treatment of ovarian cancer
   Antonia González, Spain
08:50–09:10 Potential actionable pathways in the different types of ovarian cancer
   Eric Pujade-Lauraine, France

09:10–10:40 Workshop: Develop a clinical trial for frontline ovarian cancer (PARP-I, Angiogenesis-I, Immunotherapy)
   Workshop in 4 small groups
   Early disease
   Optimally debulked
   High risk suboptimally debulked
   Inoperable/metastatic

10:40–11:00 Coffee break

11:00–12:00 Session III
11:00–11:20 New toxicities of new drugs
   Cristiano Sessa, Switzerland
11:20–11:40 How to develop a CRF to monitor toxicity?
   Regina Berger, Austria
11:40–12:00 PRO-CTCAE: is this the new standard in clinical trials?
   Francesco Perrone, Italy

12:00–13:00 Lunch break

13:00–14:30 Workshop: How to measure toxicity in a clinical trial?
   Workshop in 4 small groups
   Phase II trial
   Front-line
   Maintenance
   Recurrent trial

14:30–15:00 Key-note lecture: Immunology and cancer
   Christian Marth, Austria

15:00–15:05 Closure