Programme

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18

15:00-15:30 Welcome coffee

15:30-16:30 Welcome and introduction
15:30-15:35 Welcome
  P. Harter, Germany & K. Lorusso, Italy
15:35-15:50 What is ENGOT
  A. González Martín, Spain
15:50-16:10 Objectives of the GCA Programme
  P. Harter, Germany
16:10-16:30 Delegate Introduction

16:30-17:30 Identify open question which we could answer (part 1)
16:30-16:50 Cervical cancer
  A. Oaknin, Spain
16:50-17:10 Endometrial cancer
  K. Lorusso, Italy
17:10-17:30 Ovarian cancer
  P. Harter, Germany

17:30-18:00 Coffee break

18:00-18:40 Identify open question which we could answer (part 2)
18:00-18:20 Vulvar cancer
  M. Oonk, The Netherlands
18:20–18:40 Rare tumours
  I. Ray-Coquard, France

18:40-19:40 What do we have in the pipeline? (part 1)
  Presentations of industry partners

20:00 Diner for all participants
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19

09:00-09:20  What kind of trials do we have?
R. Berger, Austria

09:20-10:30  What do we have in the pipeline?
(part 2)
Presentations of industry partners

10:30-11:00  Coffee break

11:00-12:30  Potential instruments of and within a trial
11:00-11:15  Statisticians – What information do they need
G. Villacampa, Spain
11:15-11:30  How to plan a retrospective trial
K. Lorusso, Italy
11:30-11:45  How to plan a phase I trial
M. R. Mirza, Denmark
11:45-12:00  How to plan a phase II trial
S. Banerjee, UK
12:00-12:15  How to plan a surgical trial
P. Harter, Germany
12:15-12:30  Quality of life
F. Hilpert, Germany
12:30-12:45  How to plan a survey
J. Sehouli, Germany
12:45-13:00  Discussion

13:00-14:00  Lunch break

14:00-15:00  Brainstorming – first idea and potential working groups

15:00-15:05  Closure remarks
We thank to all sponsors. The GCA initiative is possible thanks to generous educational grants from AstraZeneca, Clovis Oncology, Genmab, ImmunoGen, Roche and GSK/Tesaro.